

GOVERNOR SHAMPERD
BY APPLICATIONS
State Appointments Will Come
This Week.WALTON TO BE DUMPED
BULLEN OF CACHE TO SUCCEED HIM.

Governor Wells is having his own troubles these days. As the end of the legislature draws near the pressure upon him for the salaries of his disposal grows more intense. A good Republican authority has it that there are not less than 100 applicants for positions on the land board alone.

A Republican who is much in the governor's counsel and has influence with his party in the state is of the opinion that the executive is still in doubt as to some of his selections. As to the Democratic members of the state land board he thought that Byron Groves would be retained, and there are several applicants for the other Democratic place. On the Republican side of the board it is decided that Wesley K. Walton will go out and H. E. Bullen of Cache county will succeed him as the member from the north end of the state. The other member to be appointed is to come from the south and succeed Thomas D. Thorne of Sanpete, who will not be reappointed.

The fight for the appointment to the office of state engineer is between R. C. Gemmell and A. J. Doremus. The governor wishes to appoint Gemmell; the party managers demand the appointment of Doremus. Gemmell, they claim, is not a party man, and never helps out in a campaign, while Doremus is a good worker, who ought to be rewarded. It is understood that Mr. Gemmell does not desire reappointment unless the irrigation laws are revised.

As to the members of the state board of equalization to be appointed very little has been given out. It is stated that Thomas D. Dye is not a candidate for another term, and that Swan O. Neilson of Sanpete is stated for reappointment.

Gomer Thomas seems to have the inside track for the place of state mine inspector, and the Republican leader quoted above stated that he was reasonably sure to get the appointment. The bill that raises the salary of the mine inspector from $2,000 to $2,500, and if it gets through the senate this office will be worth having.

H. J. Faust, Jr., the state food and dairy commissioner, is doomed to go. He is a Democrat and there are Republicans after the place, but which of the many the governor will appoint it is impossible to say.

As the governor's appointments have to be ratified by the state senate, the appointments made by the governor between this time and Thursday next, when the legislature adjourns. Each day they are referred will add that much to the interest.

ODDIES OF PATRONAGE.
Revenue Collector Will Have Many Subordinates.

As the fight for the appointment of internal revenue collector for this district warms up, the importance of the office begins to dawn upon the local Republicans. The collector himself will receive in salary and perquisites not less than $5,000 a year, and some put it as high as $6,000. In addition to this, the collector will have the appointment of almost as many salaried officers as the governor of Utah. He will have the appointment of thirteen subordinates in all. The deputy collector will receive $2,000, and the salaries of the other members of the force will range from that point down to $1,200 a year. Eight of the deputies and clerks are now appointed from the state, and the office of the collector transferred to Salt Lake, at least six of the deputies and clerks will be appointed from Utah.

Collector Webster's term of office will expire Jan. 9, and the fight for his shoes will increase in bitterness from now until the end of the year. The office of the collector is now in the hands of the O'Connell stake of Idaho is now in Washington and has been there for some time past, working hard for his own interest. He is promising that if he is appointed he will locate the office in Salt Lake anyhow, and in that way he is getting the support of some Utah people. He has the reputation of being a hard worker.

H. L. Callahan, the endorsement of practically all the influential Republicans of the state, including all the Republican members of the legislature with one exception, and the endorsement of all the Republican committee, and a majority of the influential Republican church officials. He has also secured the endorsement of some of the influential Republicans in recommending a candidate for appointment he will be guided entirely by the wishes of the influential Republicans of the state. It is conceded on all sides that Senator Kearns will have the naming of the collector, as he is the only Republican senator now in the revenue district.

President Cannon's Friends Are Alarmed by His Condition.

THERE is considerable anxiety among the members of his family and their friends over the condition of President George Q. Cannon, whose health appears to be failing rapidly. He has been confined to his bed for a number of days, a severe attack of la grippe adding to his enfeebled condition to the extent that it is regarded serious. President Cannon has not been in robust health since a severe attack of two or three years ago, when the gravest fears existed. All through the changeable weather President Cannon has not been feeling well and when the cold spell came on he contracted a cold on the lungs, which compelled him to take to his bed about a week ago. Saturday he passed a very bad night, but was reported resting easily last night.

Last Friday Dr. Croxall was sent for from Logan. The doctor advised a trip to the Pacific coast, which President Cannon will perhaps make as soon as he is able to leave. A member of the family explained yesterday that while they felt no actual alarm over the present condition of President Cannon, this attack is considered one of the most severe he has experienced in several years. In warm weather, the venerable gentleman seems to get along all right, but the least bit of cold affects him seriously.

It was learned yesterday that President Joseph Smith also is suffering severely with grip at his home. He passed a bad night Saturday, but was better last evening.

Half of the Gamblers Have Left
Salt Lake.

Superstition, rather than conscientious scruples about the observance of the Sabbath day, have had the effect for many years of keeping gambling houses closed on Sunday in Salt Lake, but yesterday things were unusually quiet in the old haunts of the sporting fraternity. The condition yesterday largely to the fact that about half the gambling house attaches, room boosters and porters to faro dealers and proprietors, have left the town. This is the claim given by the police. The officers claim that at least half, and perhaps a greater per cent of the gamblers have sought other pastures, improving the moral status of Zion to that extent.

Some of the well known sporting men who have departed intend to open games in other places. Charles Greyson and Art Pryor have gone to Mercur with what paraphernalia they could scrape together with this intention. Charles Adams, Billy Burnett and Pete Welby took the other direction and will stop at Seattle. Ogden will entomb Billy Winegard and Shorty Wade for the cost of putting in the Warren, Jim Chin and "Fridgy" have blown out, but one of the old gang remains. He is Teddy Whack.

Salt Trust Will Soon Have Another Competitor.

A meeting of the Diamond Salt company was held in this city Saturday, when it was decided to begin work immediately on the erection of a salt pond on the company's land, which adjoins Saltair on the north. The Acme Mining Machinery and the Salt Lake Hardware companies are now figuring on the cost of putting in the pond. The plant and fence will cost the company in the neighborhood of $10,000, and will be put in at once. The flume will be 3,000 feet long, and water will be pumped through it as soon as it is built.

The company owns 1,153 acres north of Saltair, and the railroad and expects to put out not less than 200,000 tons of salt per year. Fred J. Senior, president of the company, stated yesterday that all the necessary surveying has been done and that the company will run independently of the trust.

As it was perfected, and this is a matter of but a few days. Mr. Woolley is still in Washington, and is satisfied that he has a great device. It has been demonstrated to be a perfect smoke-consumer and will make a big saving in fuel.

Speaking of the company formed to push the enterprise, Mr. Langford said: "The company will not be incorporated until the patents are perfected. It is now organized with a capital stock of 200,000 shares, upon which no price was fixed. Of this stock, Woolley holds one-half and Silver Brothers and Heber J. Grant are the next largest stockholders, with equal shares."
